

ANNEXURE B

CONDUCT RULES

[Section 35(2)(b) of the Sectional Titles Act, 1986]

ANIMALS, REPTILES AND BIRDS

1. (1) An owner or occupier of a section shall not, without the consent, in writing of the trustees, which approval may not be unreasonably withheld, keep any animal, reptile or bird in a section or on the common property.
- (2) When granting such approval, the trustees may prescribe any reasonable condition.
- (3) The trustees may withdraw such approval in the event of any breach of any condition prescribed in terms of sub-rule (2).
- (4) The trustees shall have the right to consider an application by the owner to keep 2 small animals in his/her unit

REFUSE DISPOSAL

2. (1) An owner or occupier of a section shall –
 - (a) maintain in an hygienic and dry condition, a receptacle for refuse within his section, his exclusive use area or on such part of the common property as may be authorised by the trustees in writing;
 - (b) ensure that before refuse is placed in such receptacle it is securely wrapped, or in the case of tins or other containers, completely drained;
 - (c) for the purpose of having the refuse collected, place such receptacle within the area and at the times designated by the trustees;
 - (d) when the refuse has been collected, promptly return such receptacle to his section or other area referred to in paragraph (a).

VEHICLES

3. (1) No owner or occupier shall park or stand any vehicle upon the common property, or permit or allow any vehicle to be parked or stood upon the common property, without the consent of the trustees in writing.

- (2) The trustees may cause to be removed or towed away, at the risk and expense of the owner of the vehicle, any vehicle parked, standing or abandoned on the common property without the trustees' consent.
- (3) Owners and occupiers of sections shall ensure that their vehicles, and the vehicles of their visitors and guests, do not drip oil or brake fluid on to the common property or in any other way deface the common property.
- (4) No owner or occupier shall be permitted to dismantle or effect major repairs to any vehicle on any portion of the common property, an exclusive use area or in a section.

DAMAGE ALTERATIONS OR ADDITIONS TO THE COMMON PROPERTY

4. (1) An owner or occupier of a section shall not mark, paint, drive nails or screws or the like into, or otherwise damage, or alter, any part of the common property without first obtaining the written consent of the trustees.
- (2) Notwithstanding sub-rule (1), an owner or person authorised by him, may install –
 - (a) any locking device, safety gate, burglar bars or other safety device for the protection of his section; or
 - (b) any screen or other device to prevent the entry of animals or insects: Provided that the trustees have first approved in writing the nature and design of the device and the manner of its installation.

APPEARANCE FROM OUTSIDE

5. The owner or occupier of a section used for residential purposes shall not place or do anything on any part of the common property, including balconies, patios, stoeps, and gardens which, in the discretion of the trustees, is aesthetically displeasing or undesirable when viewed from the outside of the section.

SIGNS AND NOTICES

6. No owner or occupier of a section, used for residential purposes, shall place any sign, notice, billboard or advertisement of any kind whatsoever on any part of the common property or of a section, so as to be visible from outside the section, without the written consent of the trustees first having been obtained.

LITTERING

7. An owner or occupier of a section shall not deposit, throw, or permit or allow to be deposited or thrown, on the common property any rubbish, including dirt, cigarette butts, food scraps or any other litter whatsoever.

LAUNDRY

8. An owner or occupier of a section shall not, without the consent in writing of the trustees, erect his own washing lines, nor hang any washing or laundry or any other items on any part of the building or the common property so as to be visible from outside the buildings or from any other sections.

STORAGE OF INFLAMMATORY MATERIAL AND OTHER DANGEROUS ACTS

9. An owner or occupier shall not store any material, or do or permit or allow to be done, any other dangerous act in the building or on the common property which will or may increase the rate of the premium payable by the body corporate on any insurance policy.

LETTING OF UNITS

10. All tenants of units and other persons granted rights of occupancy by any owner of the relevant unit are obliged to comply with these conduct rules, notwithstanding any provision to the contrary contained in any lease or any grant of rights of occupancy.

ERADICATION OF PESTS

11. An owner shall keep his section free of white ants, borer and other wood destroying insects and to this end shall permit the trustees, the managing agent, and their duly authorised agents or employees, to enter upon his section from time to time for the purpose of inspecting the section and taking such action as may be reasonably necessary to eradicate any such pests. The costs of the inspection, replacement of any woodwork or other material forming part of such section which may be damaged by any such pests shall be borne by the owner of the section concerned.

OPEN SPACES AND ENVIRONMENTAL ASPECTS

12. (1) The Trustees shall be entitled to control all aspects of the environment on or about the complex including but not limited to the management and control of fauna and flora.
- (2) No person shall do anything or omit to do anything that may in the opinion of the Trustees, be likely to have a detrimental effect on the environment or that is likely to unreasonably interfere with the use and enjoyment of common areas by residents and their invitees.
- (3) In order to create the desired continuity of landscaping and aesthetics, all landscaping must be approved by the Trustees/Designated Landscaper prior to plants being planted. Residents are to adhere to using a minimum of 90% indigenous plants.
- (4) No resident has the authority to take a decision on his own to trim, cut back, lop, crown lift or fell any tree within the boundaries of the complex.
- (5) No resident may plant any alien plant species.
- (6) Careful consideration should be given to the planting of plants with vigorous root systems to ensure they do not cause damage to drains, underground cables and foundations.
